Report Of Sinkings

Chairman Rice Gets From Headquarters Official
Red Cross Report

Capt. Karyn ap Rice chairman of the Knox County Chapter of the Red Cross, has received from Norman H. Davis, national executive chairman, the following official report in losses at sea of relief supplies shipped by the American Red Cross.

"The confirmed losses at sea of supplies shipped by the American Red Cross have been limited to date to shipment to Great Britain. It has been assumed that one shipment of supplies to Greece valued at $120,000 has been lost, but this report has not been confirmed. The largest shipment to Greece valued at approximately $100,000 is now safe in a Mediterranean port.

"I wish to emphasize first of all the fact that there has been no loss of any supplies transported on a Red Cross ship flying the Red Cross flag. Such American ships, authorized by the Neutrality Act, can proceed into a combat area only with the consent of the blockading powers. Only three ships, namely, the S. S. McKeesport, the S. S. Cold Harbor, and the S. S. Exmouth—all employed for the transportation of relief supplies to France—may be described as Red Cross ships.

"All other supplies to the various countries in which our relief operations are being carried on have been handled as commercial shipments. All of our shipments to Great Britain and to Greece have been carried without charge to the American Red Cross, and our shipments to Spain have been carried at a nominal cost through the co-operation of the Spanish Government.

"Since October 1, 1939, the American Red Cross has forwarded 910 consignments to Great Britain on 369 steamers. Only 11 steamers carrying Red Cross supplies as a part of their cargoes have been reported lost to date. The total value of the Red Cross supplies so lost is $1,656,000, or approximately nine percent of the total value of all shipments to Great Britain. Only three percent of ships carrying Red Cross supplies to Great Britain have been lost at sea. The supplies which have been lost included supplies purchased with Government funds and supplies purchased with Red Cross funds. A substantial part of these supplies has been covered by insurance."

Final Tournament

Ten 4-H Teams Will Compete At Rockland Farm Bureau Hall Saturday

Ten teams will compete at the final tournament for 4-H demonstrations at the Farm Bureau Hall in Rockland at 1:30, D.S.T., Saturday.

These teams, demonstrating worthwhile practices they have learned in 4-H work, were the winners chosen at district tournaments in Rockland, May 9; Bristol, May 3; and Warren, May 2.

A winning team will be chosen in each of four classes, Senior girls, Senior boys, Junior girls, and Junior boys. Winning Senior teams will receive a trip to State contest in Orono in December. Winning Junior teams will receive a trip to some point of interest in Maine. Miss Anna Simpson, 4-H club agent, will be in charge of the program.

Teams competing will be: Senior girls: Dorothy Johnson, Ellen Stein, Elaine Risteen, Eleanor Nelson, Thomaston; Senior boys: George Mills, Charles Coolbroth, Tenants Harbor; Junior boys: Gordon Bowman, Clifford Shaw, Pemaquid; Howard Bryant, Malcolm Russell, Bristol; Vaughan Philbrook, Robert Wylie, Warren; Junior girls: Joanne Huntley, Lucille Brackett, New Harbor; Almeda Bragg, Helen Hoch, Waldoboro; Eleanor Ricker, Jahala Hall, Nobleboro; Margaret Huntley, Beverly Rogers, Rockland.

The score card for these 4-H demonstrations includes: 1—Practical value of demonstration; (a) mention made of its relation to 4-H work—10 points; (b) importance of subject matter presented to fundamental problems of farm or home—10 points. 2—Effectiveness of presentation; (a) knowledge of subject matter—8 points; (b) ease of speakers—8 points; (c) skill of workers—8 points; (d) personal appearance of demonstrators—8 points; (e) suitability and arrangement of equipment such that all motions are visible to audience—8 points. 3—Organization of subject matter; (a) completeness—gives all steps necessary to a complete understanding of the process—10 points; (b) shows results of what it set out to do—10 points; (c) good teamwork with both demonstrators active in demonstration—10 points; (d) time allowed for audience to ask questions—5 points; (e) set forth in clear statements, easily understood—5 points. Total, 100.

[EDITORIAL]

HITLER GIVES WARNING

President Roosevelt opened the Red Sea to American shipping, and his act is met with the definite announcement of the German Government that every ship traveling in waters defined as an operating zone exposes itself to destruction by mines or other weapons of war. Hitler's warning against an invasion of the Suez region will be regarded by nobody as an idle threat. Tragic developments appear to be in the offing, and it remains to be seen what this country is going to do about it.

MRS. SMITH'S CAMP VISIT

Margaret Chase Smith, our Representative to Congress, who never loses an opportunity to broaden her knowledge of government matters has just made her first real visit to an Army camp. She spent ten hours at Camp Meade, going into every nook and asking questions concerning every-day phases of Army life, particularly with reference to the hospital. She came away satisfied that the Army was doing a good job with its boys, and the thing which impressed her most was the neatness everywhere. A truly feminine observation. There are about 24,000 boys in that camp. There have been only three deaths in three months and now about 400 are receiving treatment for illness, none of them being in a serious condition. Mrs. Smith read the menus, saw the food being cooked and served, and ate some of it. It was good food, she declares, well cooked and seemed to be plentiful. Her report will be reassuring to parents who have sons in the service.

HESS' FANTASTIC FLIGHT

Commenting upon the Hess incident—and who hasn't—Uncle Dudley had this to say in yesterday's Boston Globe: "The truth will probably be slow emerging from this imaginative fantasia. One reason for this is quite obvious: it is the interest of the British to gain from the Hess affair every advantage possible in using it against German morale. Already, the inspired utterances of the German Propaganda Ministry recognizes this, and give evidence of a furious campaign to counter the attack and recapture of the psychological initiative.

Close analysis of the procedure followed by the Nazis in handling the Hess affair makes it clear that the flight was a genuine surprise to the highest officials in the party, that it has leveled a real blow at German morale at home and prestige in Europe and Asia, and finally, that Hitler will make a supreme attempt quickly to offset the ill-effects of the Hess desertion.

The hasty conference of all Nazi leaders called by Hitler himself shows that something is brewing on the home front. Meantime, it must be remembered that Hess vanished last Saturday, and since he disappeared there has been a remarkable intensification of German diplomatic activity throughout Europe.

After protracted delays, Von Papen has been sped back to Turkey, where he arrived Monday. Simultaneously, it is discovered that the Nazis are to send a diplomatic representative to Baghdad, recognizing the dissident Arab faction of Iraq. This follows by one day Russia's surprise announcement of recognition of the regime of Rashid Ali; by two days the conference between Hitler and Admiral Darlan, regarding the role to be played by Vichy, and amid a swarm of reports from many European sources about imminent rapprochement between Germany and Soviet Russia.

The kettles of diplomacy are boiling, with the Nazis stoking the fires. R.A.F. raids have undoubtedly driven Hitler into a speed-up of plans. The Hess desertion, with its implications on the domestic scene, particularly in respect to party morale (possibly as a result of the blitz on Germany), add more pressure. We shall witness shortly a combination of diplomatic coups and an all-out onslaught against Britain everywhere.

MORNING'S NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

The flight of Rudolf Hess to Scotland remains a mystery, with all sorts of contradictory reports coming out of England. Did he reveal valuable German secrets, or is Rudolf Hess another "Trojan Horse"? The world awaits the answer.

By a top-heavy 75 to 2 vote, the Senate yesterday approved a measure intended to put millions of dollars into the pockets of farmers through government loans pegging the price of cotton, wheat, corn and possibly tobacco.

The Governor and Council are meeting this forenoon to decide whether a pardon shall be granted to Paul Dwyer, serving a life sentence for the murder of Dr. James G. Littlefield. It is announced that Francis M. Carroll, serving a life sentence for the same offense, will also seek a pardon.

The threatened coal strike has been postponed 24 hours.

A secret flight of 21 long range 4-motor army bombers from the mainland to Hawaii is disclosed by the War Department.

Yesterday's Launching at Thomaston

The trawler Harriet N. Eldridge, launched by the Morse Boatbuilding Co. in Thomaston Wednesday afternoon for William Eldridge of New Bedford, Mass. The craft is 94 feet in length and has a beam of 19 feet 4 inches with a 230 horsepower Cooper-Bessemer diesel engine. She is built of native oak furnished by the C. E. Overlock mills at Warren.

"On the high water, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the Snow Shipyards launched the Roller at their yard here in Rockland. The boat was christened by Linda Ann Dean, five year old daughter of Lieut. and Mrs. C. L. Dean, U.S.N., and in the launching party on the platform, when the traditional bottle was broken on the bow, were Mrs. E. O'Brien and children, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanson, Senior Inspector for U.S.N. of this district, Lieut. and Mrs. T. C. Carlsen, Lieut. and Mrs. J. A. Lord, U.S.N., Ensign T. H. Burke, U.S.N., Mrs. Joseph M. Kiernan, wife of Commander Joseph M. Kiernan, Chief Supervisor of this district for U.S.N., but unavoidably absent, and Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Brannan,

U.S.N., local resident inspector, and children. The vessel is being completed for the U. S. Navy for service as a mine sweeper, and is the first to be launched of a series of 10 identical, now under way at this yard. Her keel was laid Dec. 27 last, and considering the fact that this type of boat has never before been built in this country, and that consequently involved many new problems which had to be considered during construction, this time record for building is most creditable to the local organization. In general aspect, the Roller closely resembles a tug, with sturdy hull, and pilot house in the conventional tug-boat location. She is about 100 feet in length and is propelled by a Diesel engine, and at such speed as is best suited to her usage. There are quarters for the officers and a full crew in the deck house, fully equipped with all the usual paraphernalia of a well found boat of her size, plus a few luxuries, such as, shower baths, electric refrigerators, etc. Another mine sweeper will be ready for launching from this yard in a week, and thereafter there will be fortnightly mine-sweeper launchings from the Snow Shipyards until the corporation's contract with the Government is completed. The date of delivery for the Roller is about July 30, but barring any untoward incident the craft will be in Uncle Sam's charge considerably before that date.

Rockland Lions

Hear More About the 90th
Session of Legislature—
Attendance Pins

"Impressions and Conclusions of a New Legislator" was the title of an interesting address before the Rockland Lions yesterday, the guest speaker being Rockland's junior member of the House, A. C. Jones.

Admitting that he was "green" when he took his seat, Jones said he began to get some insight as to what it was all about. His talk in the main was a discussion of various tax measures, and his own attitude concerning them. The so called luxury tax, which included 48 items, he opposed because he could see where it would impose a hardship on the working class.

He said he favored the lottery bill at the start, but voted against it because of his objection to the creation of a commission inspecting and collectors. He felt that if the bill was passed it would mean that poor people would be spending money which they could not afford on lottery tickets.

The sales tax he put in the same category as the luxury tax—expensive to operate, difficult for the merchants to take care of and inviting fraud. Such a tax would be detrimental to our Summer resort trade and many tourists would be apt to locate in Vermont or New Hampshire.

Jones told of his own bill imposing a 1 percent tax on salaries and wages and which from six sources would net in excess of two million dollars, which would go far toward taking care of old age assistance for 18,000 beneficiaries. In the hearing before the taxation committee there were only two opponents, one of whom was a member of the Communist party.

The Rockland representative favored the cigarette tax and spoke in behalf of the emergency clause.

The weekly report as to the condition of Past President Frank H. Ingraham showed him talking on the phone and doing a little walking with the aid of a crutch.

It was learned that Warden John H. Welch will present his prison pictures next Wednesday and that on the 24th the club will entertain the High School patrol.

One hundred percent attendance pins were awarded to J. F. Burgess, Howard Crockett, A. W. Gregory, Wilbur F. Senter, Eugene Stoddard, Bradford Burgess, E. Stewart Orbeton, Harold Leach, George W. Gow, Jr., and P. A. Winslow. L. J. Dandaneau, new member, received his credentials. Frank Priest of Rockport was a visitor.

The music yesterday was featured by ocarina solos by that versatile musician, Howard Crockett.

Oldtimers will recall a familiar local saying: "I'll do it, said Waterman Hewett." Sometimes, however, it was Sam Hewett or Sewall Hewett—all three names conspicuous, in local history.

More than $30,000,000 worth of costume jewelry is annually produced in this country, according to the census. The 3000 factories producing it employ 12,000 workers. No statistics available as to what it does to "Poor Pa's" pocketbook.

Somebody has handed me an old copy of The Courier-Gazette in which the following puzzle appeared:

A clerk received a basket of eggs; emptied basket by taking them out two by two, and one egg remained.

Again took them out four by four and one remained.

Again five by five and one remained.

Again six by six and one remained.

Again seven by seven and none remained. How many eggs was in the basket?

The Class of 1897, R. H. S., held graduation exercises in Farwell Opera House, June 10. Class parts: Salutatory, Fred T. Veazie; history, Mary I. Cogan; poem, Mabel F. Hall; prophecy, David G. Hodgkins; valedictory, Catherine E. Planagan; ode, Grace M. Emery. The other graduates were: Jennie H. Berry, Nina B. Williamson, Evelyn B. Crockett, Ellen A. Leonard, Josephine Alberta Woodside.

Jesse L. Rosenberg, counselor at law, 15 Park row, New York, whose recent radio address was recently published in this paper, writes to the Roving Reporter a letter, containing one especially pleasing paragraph. The former Rockland boy says:

"We are deeply attached to Rockland, probably more than you think. We love its people and everything about it. We cherish the warm memories of the happy years that we spent in Rockland, and hope to see you this Summer."

In the last 40 years of shipbuilding in the United States, gross tonnage of vessels launched, according to the census, has ranged from a high of 4,662,000 tons in 1919 to a low of 71,698 tons in 1932. In 1939, 1405 vessels with a gross tonnage of 632,000 were launched. The present decade will show a tremendous increase, thanks to national defense efforts, and the enormous demand for new ships which must result from the widespread destruction caused by the war.

We are apt to think of Alaska as a pretty chilly country, yet it has four artificial ice factories.

Mrs. Kenneth George of Arkville, N. Y., writes:

"I have noticed that The Roving Reporter often mentions unusual signs. In Connecticut a few weeks ago, I came to a small town named 'Tillie Poster' and a building in that town bore the sign: 'Tillie Foster Body Works.' Who was Tillie Foster?"

Straw hats are "legal" beginning today, but it can scarcely be termed straw hat weather in this section. Use your own judgment, and never mind the other fellows.

Corwin H. Olds was elected president of the Knox County Ministerial Association.—"Look for Hitler's death inside of 30 days," was George A. Tarr's prediction. [It didn't happen].—George W. He Lost Control

Bath Man In Knox Hospital
After Accident On Waldoboro Outskirts

Robert Feero, 28 Maple street, Bath, is in Knox Hospital, as the result of an accident on the road to Waldoboro about three miles from Warren village yesterday when he lost control of his car and went off the road. His condition has not yet warranted questioning, so the State police were unable to get the full details.

Feero, whose condition was reported this morning as "satisfactory," is said to be suffering from lacerations of the scalp and ear, contusions about the body, and possible fractured spine and skull, according to Dr. H. J. Weisman. The patient's mother is with him at the hospital.

The accident was investigated by Sgt. Foster King of the State police.

The story of the Maine State Prison, told in motion pictures, will be the Rotary Club's diversion tomorrow.

Eugene Ryan of Sailer's Snug Harbor was a visitor in the city yesterday. He will spend the summer at New Harbor.

Mrs. Adah Roberts will have charge of the supper sponsored by Winslow-Holbrook Unit No. 1 American Legion Auxiliary this week.

The rollicking 3-act comedy, "Where's Grandma" will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at the Pratt Memorial Church under the direction of Mrs. Fannie Trask. The play was at first intended for one night, but now will be given twice and tickets are good for either night.

The Baptist Men's League meeting tonight will be an all-out affair—all out to partake of the women folks' nice supper; all out to hear Rev. W. J. Day's closing address of the season; and all out to hear the report of the nominating committee. It is ladies' night, and, of course, the year's largest meeting.

A doubleheader starts the softball league Sunday at 2:30, the first game to be Elks vs. Snow's Shipyard, and the second McCarty's vs. Al's Barber Shop. Other teams in the league are A. & P., Van Baalen, Bruno's Boys Club, and Southend Wildcats. The full schedule will appear in Saturday's issue. John Smith will be umpire-in-chief for the season.

BOXING ANNOUNCEMENT

The management of the Park Street Arena announces there will be no boxing match Friday night, owing to the fact that there was no body available for the main event who would be interesting for the sport fans. One week from Friday there will be another show, when the management is going to bring back Frankie Burley (Blonde Desperado) against a very capable opponent. Watch The Courier-Gazette for the lineup for Friday the 23d. Cwing to rumors that the matches are all over, but in contradiction to these rumors, the boxing shows will continue every Friday possible.

The management—Harold McLeod, Chummy Gray.

THE WAY WE LIKE 'EM IN NEW ENGLAND—BRICK OVEN BAKED

Friends BAKED BEANS

Remember the banana...

"Every time it leaves the bunch it gets skinned"

We shouldn't poke fun at the men who buy their clothing out of town, for after all... It's their business if they don't care to leave their business here at home.

But we've found this to be a fact... that the men who stick to local stores are usually better pleased than the men who travel to a new place every season.

One reason for this is that we are in town with a stock of cool, sport clothing that will give any big city clothier a run for YOUR MONEY.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, loss of sleep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. The kidneys, or excretory passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or blood.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

PARK THEATRE FRIDAY-SATURDAY

The ever popular Robin Hood theme, with all its old time color and dash, reproduced in a modern setting, provides the story for Republic's "The Phantom Cowboy," the action-packed western starring Don "Red" Barry, which plays at the Park Friday-Saturday.

As the character Jim Lawrence,
Barry is embroiled with an unscrupulous rancho major-domo over possession of an estate willed
Lawrence by his late foster father.
To Lawrence's aid in this unequal struggle comes "El Lobo," a young Mexican who has taken the role of a masked avenger in order to pro-

Mrs. Guy Leonard went to Yarmouth yesterday for the day.

An important meeting of Williams-Brazier Auxiliary will be held tomorrow at 1:30 at the Legion rooms. All members are urged to attend.

The Beta Alpha met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Ann Day with 13 members present. The usual business meeting was held and sewing done. Mrs. Day received the dime hidden in the cake, and as the winner of the dime will make the cake for next meeting. This novel idea is being carried out in the meetings this Spring and is furnishing much merriment as well as adding cash to the treasury. Each member present pays five cents for a piece of the cake containing a dime. The person receiving the dime in her piece of cake makes the cake for the next meeting. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Marie Singer, Mrs. Minnie Newbert and Miss Edna Hill. The next meeting will be the annual roll call and will be at the Baptist vestry. All members are urged to attend.

The time of the weekly beans being sponsored by Williams-Brazier Post, A. L., has been changed from 7:30 to 8 o'clock starting next Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah J. Linekin spent Sunday at Skowhegan with their daughter, M. S. Francis Friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Washburn returned yesterday to Old Orchard having been guests two days of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Walsh.

Mayflower Temple, P. S. meets tomorrow night with a supper preceding the business meeting. All who have gifts for the sunshine basket are asked to take them to this meeting.

Twelve members were present at the meeting of the Federated Circle held Tuesday at Mrs. Bowdoin L. Grafton's. During the business meeting it was planned to have a public supper next Tuesday at 6 o'clock at the Federated vestry, the committee to be Miss Helen Studley, Mrs. Stanley Macgowan and Mrs. Orvil Williams. Plans were also made for the annual Memorial Day flower and food sale to be held May 29 with Miss Margaret G. Ruggles and Miss Rita C. Smith the flower committee and Mrs. Weston Young and Miss Nellie Gardner in charge of food. Mrs. Forest W. Stone heads a committee preparing a "Parade of Wedding Gowns".

The Granting Of Twenty-four Divorces Among Many Matters Receiving Judge Chapman's Attention

The May term of Knox County Superior Court finally adjourned late yesterday afternoon after disposing of many civil and criminal cases.

A verdict of "not guilty" was rendered in the case of the State vs. Samuel Pease of Hope, tried before a drawn jury Tuesday on a charge of statutory offense. Frank A. Trill, Jr., appeared for the respondent, and County Attorney Stuart C. Burgess for the State.

The traverse jury was excused Tuesday afternoon.

Three cases against Alton Carver were continued for sentence and he was placed on probation for two years. Deputy Sheriff Franklin G. Priest was appointed special probation officer for these cases.

Walter Dudley was sentenced to serve four months in jail for larceny.

Fred P. Knight pleaded guilty to a charge of single sale and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Francis Brodie and Arthur Hart pleaded "nolo" to a charge of riot and each was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

Arthur Hart pleaded "nolo" to assault and battery and paid a fine of $20 and costs.

The contested divorce suit of Alice Marie Thibault vs. Rene Thibault was heard Wednesday. A. Alan Grossman appeared for the libellant and Armstrong & Spill of Biddeford for the libellee.

Court costs were approved in the sum of $1,091.25; of which amount $465.84 was paid to jurors; cost of prosecuting criminal cases amounting 60 $96.14 and general bills making up the balance.

Before the final adjournment of Court at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Justice Arthur Chapman affixed his signature to 24 divorce decrees. The list follows:

Howard L. Apollonio of Camden from Helen T. Apollonio of Camden, for cruel and abusive treatment. Custody of Carlton and Spencer, minor children, granted to Helen T. Apollonio until further order of Court. Fugitive for libellant and McLean, Fugitive for libellee.

Eugene M. Reynolds from Walter C. Reynolds, both of Camden, for cruel and abusive treatment.

This And That

And now the little Georgia village that once was known to its world as Ways is called Richmond Hill out of compliment to Henry Ford's request. This is where he has a 90,000-acre experimental farm. When one counts up the benefits that have come to this country through Henry Ford, citizens should take off their hats to him.

A contemporary newspaper suggests that if one likes adventures in gardening be sure and plant roses. It's an adventure all right. This writer planted beautiful looking plants that were heart-breakers in rare glory of color and form, and what did she get—a very modest single blossom. And then again she planted roses and got more than her money's worth. Yes, it's an adventure.

A recent letter from a distinguished philosopher has this to say about these times: "When thinking of the present and the future, I realize that when idealism is dwelt upon, optimism is the attitude of mind and when realism is dwelt upon, things do not reflect so much brilliancy." The idealism which people have lived by for many generations is gone, but deep down within my heart I believe that another idealism and a better one for the world in general may be born. Time is what counts now in individual cases and is the all important thing. The world can wait but individuals cannot.

Every one should really know poetry, should feel the heart of the thought expressed and if there is no heart throb to feel the verses are not real poetry. There are so many kinds of rules that it requires a vast amount of study for perfection in this art. There comes at times in the reasoning heart a yearning to express in forms visible to his sense, a suitable thought in expression that will speak in poetic charm to satisfy his mind. To study Shakespeare's poetry one finds few rules but heart expressions that to the mind of this writer are the real art of poetry.

Montgomery & Gilmore for libellant. C. F. Dwinall for libellee.

Helen M. Neild from Howard D. Neild, both of Rockland, for cruel and abusive treatment. Tirrell for libellant.

Leslie A. Thompson of St. George from Gladys M. Thompson of Rockland for desertion. Roberts for libellant.

Anna L. Lantz of Rockland from Walter T. Lantz of Salem, Mass., for cruel and abusive treatment. Grossman for libellant; S. Jacobson for libellee.

Will Receive Medal

Maude Clark Gay

Mrs. Maude Clark Gay of Waldo-boro leaves Friday for Philadelphia to visit her daughter, Mrs. Stanley L. Bailey. Mrs. Gay and Mrs. Bailey will go Sunday to Atlantic City to attend the Golden Jubilee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Gay will be among the outstanding club women to be honored Monday night, having been awarded the silver medal for outstanding club service for District No. 9 of the Maine Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Bailey will serve as one of the four aides to the General Federation President, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar.

ALTON W. RICHARDS

Funeral services for Alton W. Richards were held Tuesday afternoon from his home, 14 Bay View square, Rev. C. A. Marsteller officiating. Many beautiful flowers were sent, testifying to the high esteem in which he was held by friends and relatives. Bearers were four nephews, Vernley Grey, Frederick Richards, Lawrence Richards and Roland Richards, all of Rockport and interment was in Seaview cemetery.

Mr. Richards was born May 17, 1879 in Owl's Head, son of William and Climenta (Richards) Richards. At the age of three years he came to Rockport, where he spent his boyhood and early manhood. He was married to Miss Jennie Philbrook Dec. 24, 1902, and their happily wedded life was spent in the house where Mrs. Richards was born. He worked at several trades, among them barbing, as an employee of Street Railway and at I. L. Snow Co. In April, 1931, he was hospitalized as the result of being struck by a motorcycle, and he was confined to the bed at his home for many weeks, being cared for by his wife and sister-in-law, Miss Bessie Philbrook. One leg was amputated, and other injuries rendered him unable to work, his time being filled by many apt hobbies, among them carving. Although sorely handicapped, his cheerful disposition carried him through his remaining 10 years of life with much happiness. Always kind and cheerful, he made many friends, and few knew the suffering he went through.

He was a Spanish War veteran, and saw duty in Cuba on the battleship Oregon. He was a member of the United Spanish War Veterans.

Survivors besides his wife are three brothers, Capt. Huse Richards and Walter Richards, both of Rockport, and Alonzo Richards of Ashland, N. H.; three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Prince and Miss Annie Richards of Rockport, and Mrs. Etta Thurston of Milton Mills, N. H.

"Where's Grandma," a three-act comedy, will be presented to-night and Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Methodist vestry. The cast includes Margaret Haver, Bertha Combs, Dorothy Trask, Herbert Ellingwood, Edith Clark, Beverly Haver, William Hopkins, Dorothy Goodnow and Harrison Dow. The committees include Richard S. Brown and Richard A. Brown, stage managers; Richard Achorn and Richard Simmons, property managers; costume mistress, Harriette Clark; head usher, June Chabot. Solos between the acts will be given by Miss Joan Hunt. Mrs. Carol Jilson will be pianist.

Mother's Day Party

"Attic" Pupils At McLain Building Entertained 40 Guests

The Fifth Grade, attic of McLain School, entertained 40 mothers and friends at a Mother's Day party and one father was a guest. Although it was to be a surprise party, rice crispies, macarons, nine delicious cakes and a giant plate of little frosted cakes appeared as if by magic. Sandwiches and punch comprised the lunch, served in May baskets. Guests were greeted by several boys who received the guests' coats and by ushers who seated the guests and other children acted as waitresses. After lunch the guests were shown the cooking and sewing laboratories, museums, product maps, current event items, etc.

A much surprised teacher received a lovely corsage. Beautiful pink and white flowers and ferns made the schoolroom gay with color.

An excellent program given by the children: "Grand State of Maine; welcome, by President of class, Diane Cameron; poem, Grace Fraughton; vocal solo, Anna Bulard; poem, Myra Gray; vocal solo, Carlyle Brown; poem, Anna Lind; piano duet, Ruth Bowley, Erik Lundin; vocal solo, Carol Wotcott, accompanied by Donald Marsh; tap dance, Betty Staples; skit "Billy Boy," Richard Senter and Paul Halligan, in costume; piano duet, Diane Cameron, Marilyn Spear; "Sing a Little Song," by class;

"Three Guesses" by class. As the only one who couldn't guess was Mrs. Alice Marsh (her gift was a clothes-basket and an immense bag of her favorite penny candy), gifts were then presented to all the surprised mothers, Miss Hutchins, Miss Tzler, cadet teachers.

Mrs. M. B. Perry, Sally Cameron, Greta Lundin, Carolyn Senter all received gifts for past good deeds to the class.

Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Waller, Mrs. French and Mrs. Richardson served in the kitchen.

The afternoon closed with Mrs. Evelyn Cameron at the piano while guests and children joined in singing "God Bless America."

Tuesday morning the program was repeated by request for Miss Mildred Sweeney and her pupils.

WITH THE EXTENSION AGENTS AND THE KNOX-LINCOLN FARM BUREAU

Agriculture

Joe Chapman and Son of Damariscotta, has an example of what can be done with an old pasture. He has plowed part of the pasture and seeded it down. A call will be made on this plot May 28, at 1:30 p. m., in connection with the pasture tours that are to be held May 27, 28, and 29.

Howard Coose and Frank Payson of Hope have bought a new pump for their orchard sprayer. Round Top Farms, of Damariscotta, has bought a complete power sprayer this year. It is nearly time to apply the pink spray.

Frank Plag of Jefferson, a former 4-H club member, has been appointed supervisor of the Knox-Lincoln County Dairy Herd Improvement Association. He replaces Donald Marks.

At the Highmoor Farm egg laying contest at Monmouth, for the month of April the pen of Foster Jamison of Waldoboro (Barred Rocks) carried off many honors. One of his hens was high Barred Rock for the month with 28 eggs, scoring 30.35 points. This bird is in third place in the Barred Rock class with 182 eggs scoring 184.8 points. Another hen is leading in the Barred Rock breed with 173 eggs scoring 189.45 points.

A D. Nutting, forestry specialist, will be in the county May 22 and 23 and will be in Hope on the 23d. That night he will attend a meeting at the manual training room in Tenants Harbor. Colored slides on home grounds will be shown and a discussion conducted on landscaping. Friday morning, May 23, a demonstration will be held on pruning shrubs at Mrs. Charles Hendricks, West Alna.

Woodchuck cartridges may be obtained at the farm bureau office for a small charge.

With the Homes

Mr. E. J. Ireland, community clothing leader was in charge of a meeting of the Buckettville Farm Bureau May 8 on Design in Handwork. The subject matter comprised hemstitching with its variations.

At North Edgecomb May 1, the subject of the meeting was rug-making which was conducted by Mrs. Nellie Clifford and Mrs. Arthur Webb. They explained color, design materials, and the procedure in the morning. During the noon hour each sketched a design and mounted the burlap in the frame and in the afternoon individual instruction on how to hook and combine colors was given. Mrs. Rose Moore and Mrs. Alta Parker served the square meal for health. It was voted to give $1.25 toward the fund to send canning equipment to England.

Mrs. Carrie Teague and Mrs. Marion Calderwood had charge of the Union meeting on rug-making held May 7. They explained the purpose, the color and design and the procedure for making hooked rugs. In the afternoon they supervised these who were hooking. Some made mats and others made rugs.

"Home Safety" is the name of a meeting being carried in several communities this Spring. On May 7 the home demonstration agent, Lucinda Rich, took charge of a session on this subject in Boothbay. Fire hazards, prevention of fires, etc., were discussed.

Plans were made by this group to serve two suppers to the Rotary Club in Boothbay Harbor. They will be given $1 toward the fund to get canning equipment for England.

Tenants Harbor also had the meeting on "Home Safety" May 9. Mrs. Jessie Harris and Mrs. Pearl Wall were in charge. Mrs. Minnie Allen and Mrs. Leah Davis assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Hupper and Mrs. Mary Mills served the dinner.

Rockport will have the subject, Home Safety, presented to its group on May 23 by Allen Payson, chief of the Camden Fire Department.

There will be a well child conference in Simonton for pre-school children on Friday, May 16. This made possible through the co-operation of the State Department of Health, the Farm Bureau and the Extension Service. Miss Jessie Sutherland, field nurse, and a physician, will be present. The committee from the Simonton Farm Bureau are: Mrs. David Wooster, Mrs. Frank Marcell, Mrs. Charles Morton, Mrs. Merle Miller, and Mrs. Lillian Dunton.

A cheese making demonstration will be given by the home demonstration agent at Burketville, Wednesday, May 21. This will be at Mrs. Harriet Jones' home in Washington. Other leader meetings to be held during the coming week are:

Rug-making at Friendship, May 16, led by Mrs. Ruth Prior.

Meat Specialists at Off's Corner, May 20, led by Mrs. Fannie Weaver.

Kitchen Gadgets at Vinahaven, May 20, led by Mrs. Cora Peterson.

Home Safety at South Bristol, May 20, led by Mrs. Mona Farrin.

Twenty-two farm bureau communities in Knox-Lincoln counties have contributed money toward a fund being raised by farm and extension people of the United States to send canning equipment to the women of England. A total of $23.50 was sent by the following communities: Boothbay, Bristol, South Bristol, Buckettville, Camden, Damariscotta, North Edgecomb, Edgecomb, Friendship, Hope, Montsweag, Nobleboro, Off's Corner, Ows Head, Rockland, Rockport, Sheepscot, Simonton, Tenants Harbor, Union, Vinahaven, and Whitefield.

4-H Club Notes

The 4th and last district demonstration tournament was held in Rockland at the Farm Bureau hall May 9 with a total attendance of 42. Winning teams chosen were: George Mills and Charles Coolbroth, senior boys, Tenants Harbor; Ellen Stein and Dorothy Johnson, senior girls, Thomaston; Margaret Huntley and Beverly Rogers, junior girls, Rockland. These teams will compete at the finals in Rockland, May 17. Judges were Lucinda Rich, Rockland; Ann Hart, South Hope; and Clifton Meservy, Warren.

Members of the Cushing boys' club destroyed about 150 caterpillar nests in the community May 8. Henry Van Deman, leader, was in charge of the work.

Many clubs report tree plantings during the past week. The Sheepscot 4-H girls planted an elm behind the Grange Hall naming it the "Christy." Off's Corner Bean Club planted two Norway pines on the community building lawn; the Pleasant Cushingites planted six trees. More reports are expected from different clubs this week.

Club members of the Fox Islanders enjoyed a weenie roast at Carver's Cove before their meeting, May 7. Subject matter at the meeting was "salads" for the cooking and housekeeping girls and the sewing girls worked on napery hems. Mrs. Barbara Nutting, leader was in charge of the meeting.

Two new members were present at a meeting of the Southern Settlers of South Bristol. Plans were made for cleaning up the church vestry during "Clean-Up Week." Norman Kelsey, leader, discussed garden plans and planting instructions.

Eight George's Valley boys of Warren met early Saturday morning at the Soldiers' Monument. They raked the plot and piled the leaves ready to be hauled away. Earle Moore, leader, supervised the work. This community service counts 50 points towards the plaque score.

Ralph C. Wentworth, county agent and Forrest Wall, leader, helped the Pioneers of Tenants

She Made Barrels

Appleton Woman Adds Interesting Chapter To Caskmaking Stories

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

I have been particularly interested in the articles and pictures which have appeared from time to time concerning the old coopers and the lime cask industry of bygone days, as I am the daughter of one of those coopers.

There must be some of them still left who will remember Robert Weymouth, more familiarly known as "Bert." I was born in West Appleton where at that time nearly everyone was engaged in the work of making "small" lime casks and hauling them with teams and barrel racks to Rockland, Rockport, and Hope.

Some of these teamsters from around our neighborhood beside father, who will probably be remembered were John Robinson, Elbridge Davis, Charlie Fuller and Frank Sufekorth, brother of "Ed," and "Ben."

This sort of thing gradually began to play out, so when I was seven years old we moved to Rockport where father went to work in the old Hospital Dock cooper shop, where they were making some "big" lime casks by that time. We lived in Rockport nearly two years and were there at the time of the three big fires. First the Hospital Dock shop where father lost all his coopers' tools, then the Eel's kilns and Ed. Morrill's big ice houses across the stream, then the H. L. Shepherd kilns.

We lived across from them on Mechanic street and although I was only eight years old I can still remember how hot our back windows were and how I walked up and down in front of the house during the fire with my favorite doll under one arm and mother's silver spoons under the other.

After these fires the cooping business in Rockport was nearly finished and people began to talk about fertilizer barrels. Father went to Searsport to the A. A. C. Co. on Mack's Point and made the first fertilizer barrel manufactured there.

The Fall I was nine years old we moved there and we with three other families lived in one house that winter. The other families were those of "Joe" Kaloich, Fred Swift, and George "Rosie" Campbell. Richard Swift and his two sons, Fred and Nelson also worked there that winter and Clint Thurston was boss of the shop. Father coopered on Mack's Point and then in Mechanic's Hollow for E. C. Pike. Here are some of the coopers I remember over there—most of them, old limecask makers:

I remember of making a shop apron of blue striped ticking for Harbor plant 500 pine and spruce trees May 8, near Wiley's Corner. The boys also practiced grafting apple trees after a demonstration by Mr. Wentworth.

Maybelle Jones, secretary, reports the following activities of the Medomak Merry Makers during "Clean-Up Week" May 3-10: Five club members raked the lawns; three mowed lawns; and three planted flower beds. A meeting was held, May 10 at Helen Skedgell's home. Mrs. Janet Johnston is leader of the club.

The Memory Man

Recalls Some of His Old Friends Down Around Ingraham Hill

(by Iree Member)

Iree and family were much pleased to receive a call, last Sunday from an old and valued friend who, back in the days when Pantano soldiers marched to the front line of battle at the Park street emporium run by Messrs. Mowry and Payson, was a co-worker with Iree the scribe, Mrs. Cuddy and scores of other diligent dollar-getters who needs must make "dough" before their bread could be baked.

The lady in question was also one of the smoothest waltzers who ever slid a shoe tap over a polished dance floor. If there is, or was any quadrille figure she could not execute with ease and precision Iree has no knowledge of it. Georgia Burton and her husband, the late George Burton, were both tops on the dance floor. Thanks for the call, Georgia.

Remember Ben Burton—Georgia's husband and Dana were both sons of Ben. Ben was one of the diminishing number who wore a full set of whiskers. Think he lived on Willow street, between Main and Union streets.

E. H. Philbrick has a wonderful memory and his knowledge of locations, people and things in and about Rockland is remarkable. Iree's hat is off to him—also to friend Walters, puzzle solver and quiz kid.

A lady said to me recently, "I enjoy reading your sketches but I will be glad when your 'band talks' are finished. The memories of people, incidents, stories, etc. are the ones I like best."

My object is to write sketches that reach and interest Courier-Gazette readers in every walk of life and in order to do it I must not neglect the great number of bandmen who read The Courier-Gazette. I can't write on all subjects at one and the same time so I must dodge from one to the other. I hope that every Joe McLaughlin when I was 12 years old and he paid me 50 cents for it. It was the first money I ever earned and was I proud of it?

We lived in Searsport about eight years and then father went to Winthrop to make apple barrels for E. C. Leighton, and the year following we moved to Monmouth where father had charge of Mr. Leighton's branch shop. Charles Overlock and son Eugene worked for him there.

Those barrels were made with flat hoops and I used to nail them for one cent a bunch. I also learned to make a barrel over there that would pass inspection.

The last fertilizer barrels father made were in Belfast for Will White of Belmont. These were sold to the Coe Mortimer Co. Charles Overlock worked with him then.

About 10 years ago father and mother moved from Belfast to a farm in South Monville on the road from Searsport to Liberty.

My husband and I came out here to work while father went to Stetson to make potato barrels for Leslie Merrill. He was still working for him when he died five years ago last September. The rest of us are still here on the farm, and barrel making is a bygone art but I still like to remember the old days and the talk of barrels, some straight, some with too much "bige," narrow staves, wide staves, "minky" staves, poor heads, flat hoops, iron hoops, birch hoops, ash hoops, and all the different improvements in coopers' tools.

Bessie Weymouth White (Mrs. Percy White) West Appleton, Me., Star Route.

sketch will be of interest to most of the readers and will try to vary the subject content of each sketch, or series of sketches, so that they will be of interest to the readers in general.

In answer to the note signed "An Interested Iree Fan" I will say that "Uncle Eph" will regale you with some more of his choice prevarications. Glad you enjoy them. In fact, Iree is having a lot of fun in his old age writing these sketches. I try readers enjoy reading them as much as I do writing them, well, you are having a lot of enjoyment.

Remember John Jones who lived near the eastern shore of Bay Point? When I was 10 years old my brother and I used to gather driftwood on that shore and were astonished and puzzled when, on numerous occasions Gustia Jones came to the water's edge and scooped up salt water in a two quart tin dipper and, of all things, drank it! Can you imagine it?

Remember Kirt's store near the head of Limerock street? He had on display a new style "boot-jack" and a small sign was tacked up over it which said "Try it." A man we will call Brown, because that was not his name, came in one day and stood for some time gazing at the boot-jack and sign. This man knew most of the letters in the alphabet but he could neither read nor write.

After a time he placed his finger of each letter as he said "T R Y I T, boot-jack. I didn't know that was the way to spell it!" Really happened.

How many remember tubby, chubby jolly little Dr. Clements who lived and had an office in a small house near A. J. Bird's store at the North End? As I understand it, his first wife died and left him with four young sons to care for. The task proved too great and he found good homes for all of them and they grew up into splendid citizens. My half sister, Helen, married one of the boys. He was brought up by a fine man named Wooster and was legally adopted. Charles Wooster was his legal name. I doubt if there is a person living down around Ingraham's Hill who didn't know and doesn't remember Charlie Wooster. A man loyal to his family and friends and a good, steady worker.

To Charles and Helen Wooster were born five daughters and two sons. One of the sons, Ansel, now plays in the Rockland City Band and Oscar, the other son is the father of "Bulch" Wooster, well known contender in the squared circle. Gertrude, the eldest daughter has passed on, as has Sadie, another of the daughters. Lena, a widow, lives in the house her parents owned and lived in. Jessie married Elmer Ames and they own a home at Ingraham's Hill. The youngest daughter, Catharine, married Charles Collins, formerly of Isle au Haut but now of Rockland. Home on Pleasant street.

Another son of Dr. Clements is Jimmie McIntyre and another is Arthur McIntosh. Both these men are well known and liked. I think the other boy now lives on North Haven but am not sure.

George Everett, long a neighbor of the Woosters at Ingraham's Hill, was for many years a valued member of the R.M.B. George had a brother, Adrian, who was a truck gardener and had at one time, at stud, a fine Percheron stallion. He afterward closed up his business and went away—some place on the West Coast, I believe.

Another man I knew who lived at Ingraham's Hill was Judge Charles E. Meservy—no relation to our Col. Fred so far as I know. Another was Stanley Montgomery, father of the cornetist, Charles. Harry Spaulding was another man I remember. George Smith, several members of the Gupitill family, the Holmans, George Tarr, were others. I knew George Everett's father but not his given name. Never forgot a face but names elude me more or less. Always did.

After wading through the recently printed "band talks" I think we all need a few sketches in a lighter vein.

She knew that he knew that her father was dead. She knew that he knew the life he had led. And she knew that he knew what she meant when she said—go to father! Figure that one out.

It is estimated that the average number of bacteria on a dollar bill is 42,000.
